Marching Forward Today

Training Faithful Servants for Tomorrow – Today!

March 2012

Dear Fellow-Laborer in Christ,

Spring has sprung and “Punxsutawney” Phil the Groundhog can no longer be recognized as a prophet; he forecast six weeks more of bad weather and it’s almost summer-like this month.

I am glad we have a Father whose Word has never been incorrect, but true to all Scriptures. He is faithful, caring, and has never broken a promise. Martin Luther said “Our Lord has written the promise of resurrection not in books alone, but in every leaf of springtime.”

The March chapel services have been marvelous. Mission’s week and Student Fellowship Night took place the week of the 12th through the 15th. All of those in attendance enjoyed the mission presentations by Steven and Patty Sark, who are missionaries to Tibet.

Our institutional buildings are almost finished with new electrical upgrades. Not only will we save on electrical usage costs, but TSBC will be in compliance with current electrical building codes.

God is sending us new and unique students to study and prepare for their ministries. One new student has faced incredible life difficulties and God has resurrected her life to know more about Him. PRAISE GOD!!

Meet a student: Troy Delaney, 49, is pastor of Providence Baptist Church, and a faithful TSBC student in his junior year. He and his wife, Lora, have been married for 30 years. They have three wonderful daughters and two beautiful grandchildren. Troy serves at a local elementary school as a child mentor. The school has invited him to speak at their Veteran’s Day assembly.

You are invited to visit the TSBC campus when you can; allow us to share lunch and what God is doing here at your institution. Let us pray and encourage one another.

A summer schedule is included...use it for yourself, or pass it on to anyone that may benefit.

Be assured of our thankfulness and deep appreciation for your prayers and support.
In His Service,

Jack R. Finch

I exhort therefore, that first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty
